2:55 PM	Payne IC	903-57	ARTHUR KINOY called DAVE SCRIBNER long distance from Chicago, Illinois. DAVE discussed the wonderful decision of Judge WEINFELD (ph), a United States District Court Judge, on the grand jury action. SCRIBNER described the decision as "out of this world" and said that they were printing the opinion as a public service. He advised KINOY that the petition for a rehearing in the QUINN and EMSPAK matter had been denied. DAVE said that he would be in the office tomorrow after which he was going to Pittsburgh for the Westinghouse conference board meeting. He added that he was then going to Washington for the hearings before the Senate Labor Committee on Thursday and Friday. He mentioned that he would go to Wisconsin on Saturday for a meeting of the District Council. ARTHUR KINOY said that he would come in tomorrow as he had a great deal of information about activity in the field which they could discuss. Arthur Kinoy to Basil Pollitt. Latter said just spoke to Vic Rabinowitz was interest in the victory he just won in the SHADOWITZ case and what was accomplished. Both agree to get the text of the opinion next week. Pollitt said the Quinn case is cited numerous times. Kinoy asked about the Board meeting Pollitt said it was over and the report had been given, very interesting. The General president reported on his negotiations with various unions, negotiations are going on and are difficult due to personalities and issues involved. There is motion, and Poll added, he was suprised but gratified: there was no dissention. Kinoy asked if there was dissention from anyone. Basil said there was none from anyone. (u)

He tells MATLES it is excellent for us on several questions of law- especially whether you can remitigate the question of good moral character. He says this enabled the gov't to bring in all kinds of crap. He says the appendices that he files with his opinion is extremely important. KINOY says the excerpts from the appendices are very long and he (KINOY) has wired the West Coast to get photostats of those. KINOY suggests that they get together and go over it carefully. MATLES suggests the possibility of taking the offensive on this thing and says how long are "you" going to persecute. MATLES says he is not saying to do this but should discuss it. KINOY says he (JUDGE?) that you have to look skeptically on evidence about beliefs and opinions 20 or 30 years ago. MATLES says he saw in the papers that "he" talked about good citizenship for 10 years, MATLES says we got 21 or 22 years. KINOY says the judge doesn't deny there was evidence of so called Communist meetings but he says they talked about Trade Union Activities at these meetings. MATLES says that during the trial he said to the defense - "Don't you want to say anything about the character of these witnesses" MATLES says "they2" will have to hit the bottom of the barrel in his situation. KINOY tells MATLES he will call him tomorrow when he gets the appendices and will send to MATLES a copy of the opinion.
